It Took 80 Years

...to make Shepard's Citations as good as it is today.

You can't name one of the really great law books that is a newcomer. Great law books aren't invented like a mechanical gadget. They can't be copied like a hat. More like a man, they must develop character—they must grow great with the years.

In 1873 Frank Shepard edited the first edition of Shepard's Citations. He established a system to which the experience and skill of 80 years has been added.

You find all this in every copy of Shepard's Citations today.
