

Marquette Law Review

Volume 3
Issue 4 Volume 3, Issue 4 (1919)

Article 1

1919

Editorial Comments: Progressivism

Editorial Board

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarship.law.marquette.edu/mulr>

Part of the Law Commons

Repository Citation

Editorial Board, Editorial Comments: Progressivism, 3 Marq. L. Rev. 149 (1919).
Available at: <https://scholarship.law.marquette.edu/mulr/vol3/iss4/1>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Journals at Marquette Law Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Marquette Law Review by an authorized editor of Marquette Law Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact megan.obrien@marquette.edu.

Marquette Law Review

Published quarterly during the School Year by the Marquette Law Students.

Subscription Price, $1.00 per year

35 cents per number

EDITORIAL BOARD

GILBERT E. BRACH.....	Editor-in-Chief
SYLVESTER F. DONOVAN, EDWARD T. CURLEY.....	Associates
JOHN T. LINDSAY.....	Advertising Manager
EDWARD C. PLANTZ, JOHN C. SUTTON.....	Assistants
HERBERT C. HIRSCHBOECK.....	Business Manager
MATT F. BILEK, JAMES C. DUTTON.....	Assistants
THOMAS C. DWYER.....	Circulation Manager
VICTOR I. MINAHAN, JR., LEO J. COHEN.....	Assistants
CLIFTON WILLIAMS.....	Faculty Advisor

PROGRESSIVISM

Have you done all within your power to forge ahead in the past year? What have you done to make this world a better place to live in? Do you listen to new ideas with open ear, or do you scoff at them, look into the past and declare that the same were not needed then, hence not now? Yesterday is gone; tomorrow is fast approaching; what are you doing today that the world may progress?

Science has made rapid progress, mainly because ideas have been exchanged. Scientists have given their lives in order that the world might be bettered.

There is a great field in the law for sound, intelligent progress. Perhaps you have an idea that will tend to make a new law which will create speedier justice. How much will that idea help the world, pent up in your own mind? Perhaps you have chanced upon some topic of interest in your work which would be beneficial to the Bench and Bar.

We wish to be of service to you, to the Bench, and to the Bar of Wisconsin. Have you ever thought that a contribution in the Marquette Law Review may benefit someone today, who will help to clear away some troublesome problem tomorrow?

We have striven to make this paper a medium for Progressivism in the past; we hope to make it more progressive in the future. But this can only be done with your help.

May we ask it of you?