ABOUT

MARQUETTE BENEFITS & SOCIAL WELFARE LAW REVIEW

This law review is produced by Marquette University Law School student staff members and is a publication of Marquette University Law School.

FOR AUTHORS

The Marquette Benefits & Social Welfare Law Review editorial board welcomes articles of merit in the broad field of employee benefits law, including ERISA employee benefits law, health law, disability law, and general welfare law (poverty, public interest, family and elder law). The Law Review seeks to publish succinct and readable articles of interest to scholars, policy makers, and practitioners. Accessibility is key to our effort to create dialogue and progress in employee benefits and social welfare issues. Important articles may, for example, explore points of philosophy or policy in detail, or may encapsulate an issue for non-specialists.

Manuscripts should be sent to the address below or submitted electronically to benefitslaw@marquette.edu. Each manuscript should include double-spaced text with footnotes, and should clearly identify the author and contact information. Upon acceptance, an electronic copy must be provided by the author by email or disk.

COPYRIGHT PERMISSIONS

The Marquette Benefits & Social Welfare Law Review authors' hold copyrights to published articles. However, attribution must be given to the Review upon any reproduction of the Article.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

The Marquette Benefits & Social Welfare Law Review is published biannually in Fall and Spring. The Subscription price is $30 annually, and may be forwarded to the attention of the Business Editor at the address below.
