FEATURE ARTICLES

ETHICS OF THE ATTORNEY IN MEDICAL MALPRACTICE LITIGATION .............................................1
Marshall B. Kapp

A GUARDIANSHIP JURY TRIAL CASE STUDY ......................................................................................7
Steven C. Perlis

PHYSICAL THERAPISTS AS CONSULTANTS TO ELDER LAW ATTORNEYS AND CLIENTS ...........11
Ron Scott

TAX-EFFICIENT WEALTH TRANSFER BY AN ELDERLY COUPLE ....................................................14
Allen F. Ross

EARLY-STAGE DEMENTIA DIAGNOSIS AND CARE ...........................................................................19
Victor G. Valcour and Patricia L. Blanchette

PREVENTIVE MEDICINE GUIDELINES FOR THE GERIATRIC POPULATION ...............................31
Lisa Dockter and David A. Simpson

PRIVACY AND PENSION PLAN RECORDS: IS SELF-REGULATION SUFFICIENT? ......................41
Michael J. Francis

REIMAGING THE OMBUDSMAN: AN APPRAISAL ............................................................................49
Beth Eisendrath

CLIENT CAPACITY, ESTATE PLANNING, AND MALPRACTICE TRAPS

REPRESENTING THE MENTALLY IMPAIRED CLIENT .......................................................................62
James V. Quillinan

PSYCHOLOGICAL PERSPECTIVES ON COMPETENCY .....................................................................73
John Becker

HAS YOUR CLIENT LOST IT? ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS IN ESTATE PLANNING ..................84
Marita K. Marshall and Frayda L. Bruton

COLUMNS

FROM THE EDITOR .................................................................................................................................iii
Alison McChrystal Barnes

BODY AND MIND
ON THE WAY TO ALZHEIMER’S DISEASE .......................................................................................90
M. Saleem Ismail

BOOKSHELF
JOINT CONFERENCE ON ETHICAL/LEGAL ISSUES IN THE PROGRESSION OF DEMENTIA ..........94
Carrie McAdams