ARTICLES

RELIGION AND THE FIRST JUSTICE HARLAN: A CASE STUDY IN LATE NINETEENTH CENTURY PRESBYTERIAN CONSTITUTIONALISM
James W. Gordon .......................................................... 317

TENANCIES IN ANTIQUITY: A TRANSFORMATION OF CONCURRENT OWNERSHIP FOR MODERN RELATIONSHIPS
Peter M. Carrozzo .......................................................... 423

ESSAY

JOSEPH MCCARTHY, THE LAW STUDENT
Jeffrey S. Kinsler .......................................................... 467

COMMENTS

CHIPPING AWAY AT THE ERISA SHIELD: MANAGED CARE ACCOUNTABILITY AND THE FIFTH CIRCUIT'S DECISION IN CORPORATE HEALTH INSURANCE, INC. V. TEXAS DEPARTMENT OF INSURANCE
Bridget S. Kenney .......................................................... 481

PATENTABILITY OF HUMAN GENES: OUR PATENT SYSTEM CAN ADDRESS THE ISSUES WITHOUT MODIFICATION
M. Scott McBride .......................................................... 511

RECENT LEGISLATION: WHERE ARE WE GOING WITH FEDERAL HATE CRIMES LEGISLATION? CONGRESS AND THE POLITICS OF SEXUAL ORIENTATION
George S. Peek .......................................................... 537

NOTE

ATKINS V. VIRGINIA: IS EXECUTING THE MENTALLY RETARDED CONSTITUTIONAL?
Oliver Kaufman .......................................................... 579