Marquette Law Review

Volume 1
Issue 1 Volume 1, Issue 1 (1916)

Marquette Law Review vs. Marquette Alumni and Wisconsin Lawyers

Marquette University

Follow this and additional works at: http://scholarship.law.marquette.edu/mulr

Part of the Law Commons

Repository Citation
Available at: http://scholarship.law.marquette.edu/mulr/vol1/iss1/3

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Journals at Marquette Law Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Marquette Law Review by an authorized administrator of Marquette Law Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact megan.obriens@marquette.edu.
MARQUETTE LAW REVIEW vs. MARQUETTE ALUMNI AND WISCONSIN LAWYERS

An action is never started without a condition precedent commonly termed a cause. The accomplishment of the cause, purpose or intention of the actor is called the result or effect.

This initial number of the Marquette Law Review is no exception to the rule but is the result or, strictly speaking, first step in carrying into execution a purpose of the Marquette Law students. Our primary intention is to furnish an attractive bond between the Marquette Law students and the Alumni and secondarily, to acquaint each and every lawyer in the state with the fact that the Cream City is the locus in quo of the most progressive law school in the middle west. Furthermore, we purpose to devote the REVIEW exclusively to a resumé of Wisconsin law and to a discussion and exposition of matters which we may deem of special, practical value to the Wisconsin bar.

In addition to the regular legal discussions we direct your attention to a permanent feature of this work which is the section devoted to Legislative Suggestions. We invite the Wisconsin attorneys to make use of this section to voice remedial measures.

Do you Milwaukee attorneys know our Doctor Clear? He knows you. Your every act, thought and pet saying is chronicled in his mind and one of these days you are in for the shock of your life when you see your "private story" laid before the eyes of your fellow lawyers. Doctor Clear’s specialty is the reiteration of legal witticism and humor detailed in the court rooms in Milwaukee. His first revelation will appear in the next issue. If you desire a little light reading do not fail to read “Doc's" hearsay version of the law.

If you feel that this first copy of the Law Review warrants your support of future issues we would be very grateful if you would make an affirmative showing to that effect. Write us and proffer your support not only as a subscriber but as a literary contributor. Any suggestion or criticism will be gratefully received and considered.